

LEGAL

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Human Trafficking 101 for Attorneys - Coalition to Abolish Slavery and Trafficking (CAST)	CAST provides an 8- hour training with an introduction to the legal immigration benefits available to human trafficking survivors. The training also discusses the application process for T and U visas, information on working effectively with law enforcement, asserting victim's rights under the Crime Victim's Rights Act, and an informative overview of the civil remedies available to human trafficking survivors. If an attending attorney is not able to represent one human trafficking victim pro bono within a one year period of the training there is a $300 cost. This course also allows for attendees to receive 6 MCLE credits.	In- Person Training	legalintern@castla.org or www.castla.org/legal-resources	N/A
Freedom Network Conference - Freedom Networking Training Institute	The Freedom Network Training Institute is part of a country wide network with more than 25 members organizations in the United States. This training is a day long comprehensive training with four different modules tailored to instructing law enforcement and social services providers.	In- Person Training	Maria Jose Fletcher fletchermj@vidalaw.org and Tiffany Williams tiffany@ips-dc.org	Law Enforcement and Social Services
Aequitas	Aequitas's mission is to improve the quality of justice in sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, and human trafficking cases by developing, evaluating, and refining prosecution practices that increase victim safety and offender accountability. Aequitas provides prosecutors and allied professionals with support, training, mentorship, and resources to enhance victim safety, prevention, and prosecution efforts in human trafficking cases. Technical assistance, available 24/7 by phone, can review, or policy and protocol development. Aequitas can also provide in-person training, including an interactive 3.5 day Institute on the Investigation and prosecution of Human Trafficking.	Distance Consultation, In-Person Training, and Web-based Training	Christina Mathews 4226 cmathews@aeuitasresource.org www.AEquitasResource.org	(202)596- Law Enforcement and Social Services

LEGAL

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Collaboration and Task Force Building To Combat Human Trafficking in Your Community	Participants in the training will receive information on the collaboration between law enforcement and social service providers, establishing jurisdictions, resource mapping, and developing a community network of services for victims, multidisciplinary approaches to case management, nonduplication of services, grass roots organization, outreach and communication strategies, and advocacy. These trainings do include a "Train-the-Trainer" curriculum.	In-Person Training / Online Training Webinar	www.usccb.org/about/human-trafficking Rymer (202)541-3021 lyrmer@usccb.org	Attorneys, Government Officials, Law Enforcement, Social Service Providers, Task Force Members, and Advocates
Division of Anti-Trafficking in Persons (ATIP)	ATIP provides online trainings to provide information on identifying and assisting trafficking victims and conducting outreach. Additionally, ATIP leads the HHS Rescue and Restore Victims of Human Trafficking campaign which attempts to provide public benefits and services to foreign adult and minor victims of human trafficking.	Online Training - Webinar	Maggie Wynne (202)401-5510 trafficking@acf.hhs.gov	Attorneys, Law Enforcement, and Social Services
Examining Commercial Sexual Exploitation, Victims in the Commercial Sex Industry - Girls Education and Mentoring Network Services (GEMS)	The training is a three day intensive course that offers a "Train the Trainer" option which will instruct attendees on how to facilitate the training. Training sessions are specialized to the audience's needs and interests. GEMS offers workshops and customized technical assistance sessions on request.	In-Person Training	Deanna Gree, Training Assistance Manager deanna@gemsgirls.org www.gems.girls.org	Law Enforcement, Medical Professionals, and Prosecutors
Human Trafficking Training for State Judges - Upper Midwest Community Policing Institute (UMCPI) and National Judicial College (NJC)	Training sessions will instruct judges on how to properly understand the Trafficking Victims Protection Act and its reauthorizations in the United States. These reauthorizations include state laws regarding human trafficking, definitions of all types of human trafficking, perpetrator and victim issues, victim trauma considerations, immigration issues, penalties, sentencing issues, restitution, and forfeiture.	In-Person Training	William Brunson, NJC (775)327-8211 or (800)255-8343 brunson@judges.org	State Judges

LEGAL

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Human Trafficking Training for State Prosecutors - Upper Midwest Community Policing Institute (UMCPI) and National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG)	The training provided by UMCPI and NAAG includes an overview of human trafficking- an introduction to the legal framework, international, national and state- regarding trafficking in persons, partnership models, victim issues, investigatory and interviewing techniques, and prosecutorial theories and practices. The training will conclude with an ethics based discussion on a provided case study.	In- Person Training	Judy McKee, NAAG (202)326-600 est. 6044 jmckee@naag.org	Law Enforcement and State Prosecutors
Introductory and Advanced Training for Service Providers Working With Victims of Human Trafficking - U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops(USCCB)/Migration and Refugee Services(MRS)/Anti-Trafficking Program (ATP)	Topics for these trainings include: services to trafficking victims (foreign-born individuals and male and female); sex and labor trafficking; identification and screening; service provision and best practices; interviewing (age/development appropriate, trauma-informed, victim-centered); cultural competency; preventing re-exploitation; data and case file management, analysis, and reporting; protection of information; confidentiality and HIPAA	In-Person Training/ Online Training - Webinar	Lauren Rymer, Education and Outreach Coordinator (202)541-3021 lrymer@usccb.org	Advocates, Attorneys, and Social Services
Polaris Project's National Training and Technical Assistance Program (NTTAP) - Polaris Project	The Polaris Project provides this training in an effort to ensure the implementation and institutionalization of anti-trafficking efforts. Polaris Project conducts trainings, offers consultations and technical assistance, develops specialized curricula, and assists Task Forces, coalitions and advocates with capacity building and sustainability. This includes providing current information on federal and state laws, promising practices, victim identification and assessment, and recent human trafficking trends. Polaris Project's goal is to equip stakeholders with the most comprehensive tools and approaches necessary to enhance community networking, coordination, and response.	In-Person Training/ Online Training - Webinar/ Curriculum Development	training@polarisproject.org	Attorneys, Judges, Law Enforcement, Prosecutors, and Social Services

LEGAL

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Open Society Foundation	Martina Vandenberg strives to provide training and technical assistance on civil remedies available for trafficking victims in the United States. The training is designed for pro bono attorneys and anti-trafficking advocates focuses on criminal restitution and other damages. In addition to the training, Ms. Vandenberg has materials available for pro bono attorneys representing survivors of human trafficking in criminal and civil litigation.	In-Person Training/ Online Training - Webinar	Martina Vandenberg (202)716-8485 martinavandenberg470@hotmail.com	Law Enforcement, Pro Bono Attorneys, Prosecutors, Social Services
Collaborative Community Sex Trafficking Identification and Response Training - Shared Hope International	This trainings is designed to build a collaborative response among law enforcement, prosecutors, juvenile justice, social services, and advocates to combat human traffikcing. Topics of the trainnig include: key factors of trafficking, methods of pimp control and recruitment, trauma response and service provision, state legislation, and practical action steps. It is possible to recieve CEU credit for attending and participating in trainings.	In- Person Training	sharedhope.org/what-we-do/prevent/training	Law Enforcement, Social Services, and Legal
Gang TRAP (Trafficking Response and Prevention) Training Guide and Video Series - Shared Hope International	Gang TRAP is a DVD series and training curriculum that is intended to address the growing trend of sex trafficking cases created by criminal street gangs. This training guide provides information on the dynamics of gangs, recruitment and social control tactics, professional challenges associated with working with gangs, and a therapeutic reponses.	In- Person Training (DVD Series)	www.sharedhope.org/what-we-do/prevent/training	Law Enforcement, Social Services, and Legal

LEGAL

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Identifying and investigating cases of forced labour and trafficking - International Labour Organization	The course is targeted at law enforcement agents, primarily labour inspectors, police officers, prosecutors as well as any other actors who are likely to encounter forced labour in the course of their work: health and safety inspectors, trade union officials, NGOs, and others. Trainees develop a better understanding of what is forced labour, how to identify it in practice, how to inspect work places and how to investigate cases in order to successfully prosecute offenders. A booklet has been produced to provide law enforcement officers with operational indicators of forced labour.	Online Training - Online Course	ils-clflt@itcilo.org + 39 011 693 6626	Law Enforcement, labour inspectors, legal, social services
Training Resources for Legal Professionals - Slavery Today	Slavery Today has compiled an online resource library for legal professionals working on human trafficking cases. This information is available with no charge.	Online Training	http://slaverytoday.org/training/legal-professionals/	N/A